Luxury Homes With Holiday Decor

Bolton Beach House

Whoville is closer than you imagined! This 3-story Who-House sleeps up to 12 people and was decorated with inspiration from Dr. Seuss.

Immerse yourself in our rendition of "The Grinch Who Stole Christmas", featuring authentic memorabilia from the 2000 blockbuster film.

Sit on the Grinch's throne from the scene where Whoville gorges their green guest with sweet treats! Gaze at the light-up sweater Jim Carrey wore while the Who-people threw a Christmas bash. We've even got a weeping Christmas tree with oversized Seussian ornaments.

Don't forget to stop at the Starbucks coffee bar to try the limited exclusive "Gifford Grinch" cocktail and Grinch's green cookies.

Sagamore Golf House

Nestled within a gorgeous three-and-a-half acres, the Sagamore Golf House is the only home within the Sagamore Golf Course and sleeps up to 18 guests.

So we combined Christmas with Golf!

Enjoy a panoramic view of the course and decked-out halls with golf-themed adornments. The Christmas tree features handmade decor made from golf balls and tees.

The massive farm table is set for Christmas dinner with real putting grass and custom arrangements. Your in-home movie theater is reel-ready with "It's a Wonderful Life". Fire up the popcorn maker and grab a Classic Christmas cocktail from the 19th Hole Bar.

Be sure to tour the wine cellar, arcade, and billiard room before you go.

Blue Hill Farm

As you approach the home, which comfortably sleeps 8 guests, look toward the barn. You'll see Santa waiting to greet you!

Stop by the kitchen to visit Mrs. Claus, who is busy baking sugar cookies for Santa's big night. From the red and white buffalo check and gingham to the seasonal throw cushions and cozy blankets, this Adirondack-inspired lodge will offer a warm stay for the crisp Winter night.

The 270-degree floor-to-ceiling windows offer a stunning lakeside view. A collection of activities from tic-tac-toe to billiards will keep the whole group entertained during your stay. With Christmas classics playing from the old-time record player, stroll around this classic country home and you're guaranteed to feel the holiday cheer.

Indian Brook Lodge

The North Pole has been transported, and Santa works remotely from his favorite vacation spot, Indian Brook Lodge. You'll see just how hard his job gets when you visit his work desk, where a long list of who has been “naughty and nice” is rolled out next to his favorite picture of Mrs. Claus.

Get a behind-the-scenes look of Santa’s workshop at the elves’ toy bench, where toy-making is well underway. Nearby, the elves hang their stockings and laundry, leaving it to dry by the wood-burning stove.

Visit the giant toy chest full of wrapped gifts ready to be loaded and delivered by the sleigh parked outside by the roaring brook.

During your tour of Indian Brook, your senses will be delighted by the peppermint scent of the holiday season. Grab a complimentary Candy Cane Mimosa at the Tomahawk bar on your way out to the deck to take in the sweeping views of the beautiful lake and nearby Tongue mountain.

Bell Point

This Adirondack waterfront manor is the perfect backdrop for a rustic Christmas. The fresh balsam pine wreaths tied with bright festive bows, the birch wood arrangements on top of the stairs, and the vintage ice skates, toboggan, and snowshoes pull the old-fashioned Christmas feel together.

The expansive interior features enormous stag antler chandeliers. A turn-of-the-century wooden canoe hangs from the ceiling, sparkling seasonal relics.

Enjoy a holiday spirit from the bar and game room and take in the yuletide cheer.

Hand-knit stockings hang from the massive fieldstone fireplace.

A beautifully decorated tree completes the scenery.

Enjoy dinner at the formal Christmas tablescape.

You’ll feel like you stepped into a holiday film.

Before you go, visit the carolers singing Christmas songs from the screened-in porch!

Lakeview Lodge

"Oh, Fudge!" You won't need to be "Double Dog Dared" to stay at the Lakeview Lodge this Winter. Our two-story home sleeps 10 people in a scene from the classic, "A Christmas Story".

The film takes place during a simpler time in what you’d call the Norman Rockwell era and that’s how this luxury rental will be decorated this season. Enjoy your stay while Ralphie’s Bunny Suit and other Christmas Story surprises will be on display.

The centerpiece is the authentic leg lamp on display for all to see.
